Please see reverse side for activity descriptions

December 5th—Cook's Corner with Deb Long: Sharpen your knives and test your cooking skills.

December 6th—Off site trip to Sanctuary Arts in Eliot, ME. We will be working with local artist, Trisha Coates to create ornaments for our upcoming window display in downtown Exeter.

December 7th—Drop In: Learn to juggle with UNH volunteer Cristina!

December 12th—Cook's Corner with chef TBA: Sharpen your knives and test your cooking skills.

December 13th—Get your face painted by volunteer Ginna!

December 14th—Drop In: Make holiday crafts for your family, including lip balm, body scrub, holiday treats, and more. Girl's Group: Indoor Rock Climbing at MetroRock. Waiver required, and we will be coming back a bit late at 6:15 p.m.

December 19th—Cook's Corner with chef TBA: Sharpen your knives and test your cooking skills.

December 20th—Compete with teams in unique sports and challenges for our own New Outlook Winter Olympics.

December 21st—Celebrate our holiday party with games and treats!

***Lisa will also be hosting a second Girl's Group activity, jewelry making, on a date to be announced very soon. Look to our weekly newsletters or our white board here at the center for updates on this time!
